NO OFFER OR SOLICITATION

This website is intended to provide you with general information about our services, our fees, our qualifications, our staff, and ways to contact us. Nothing on this website should be construed by any consumer and/or prospective client as AFA's solicitation or offer to sell securities or investment advisory services or personalized investment advice over the Internet. We do not provide personalized investment advice or financial planning advice through the AFA website. Specific advice is given only within the context of our contractual agreements and may only be rendered after the delivery of Form ADV Part 2A, the execution of an investment advisory and/or financial planning contract, and arrangements for the initial payment of the advisory or planning fee (if applicable) by the client to the advisor. This website is provided for informational purposes only and does not constitute a complete description of our investment advisory and financial planning services.

Visitors to AFA's website acknowledge that different investments involve varying degrees of risk, and there can be no assurance that any specific investment will either be suitable or profitable for a client's or prospective client's investment portfolio. No client or prospective client should assume that any information presented and/or made available on this website serves as the receipt of, or substitutes for, personalized individual advice from the advisor or any other professional.

Past performance may not be indicative of future results. Therefore, no current or prospective client should assume that the future performance of any specific investment, investment strategy (including the investments and or strategies recommended and or/purchased by advisor) or product referred to directly or indirectly on this website or other public media platforms, or via link to any unaffiliated third-party web site, will be profitable or equal to corresponding indicated performance levels.

References made to historical performance results for investment indexes and/or categories generally do not reflect the deduction of transaction or custodial charges or the deduction of an investment management fee, the incurrence of which would have the effect of decreasing historical performance results.

Certain portions of AFA's web site (such as blogs, articles, commentaries, etc.) may contain AFA's recommendations as of a specific prior date. Due to various factors, including changing market conditions, such discussion may no longer be reflective of current position(s) and/or recommendation(s). Client or prospective client understands and acknowledges that information with respect to newsletters or other commentaries provided by the investment advisor may be dated and no longer reflect the opinion of the advisor. Moreover, no client or prospective client should assume that any such discussion serves as the receipt of, or a substitute for, personalized advice from AFA, or from any other investment professional. AFA is neither an attorney nor an accountant, and no portion of the web site content should be interpreted as legal, accounting or tax advice.

Rankings and/or recognition by unaffiliated rating services and/or publications should not be construed by a client or prospective client as a guarantee that he/she will experience a certain level of results if AFA is engaged, or continues to be engaged, to provide investment advisory services, nor should it be construed as a current or past endorsement of AFA by any of its clients.
